

THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY

COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES

CAREER SUCCESS COURSES

The College of Arts and Sciences Center for Career and Professional Success is excited to announce the release of our new career development courses designed to help students map out career plans, prepare for internships, build professional skills, and connect with industry and alumni partners.

For Spring Semester 2025:

ARTSSCI 2000: Designing Your Career Experience
and
ARTSSCI 3000: Designing Your Life After College

These courses are ideal for students looking to get a head start on their career journey, those nearing graduation but seeking direction, or those in need of a one- or two-credit course. The courses provide practical, actionable skills that will support career preparation and position students for a strong transition from college to career.

Credits: 1

Day: Wednesdays

Time: 4:10 – 5:05 pm

Location: 206 Denney Hall

Grading: S/U

Enrollment Cap: 25

By enrolling, students will learn how to maximize their career-building potential in internships, networking, research, and leadership. The course will also help students gain real-world experience through activities like the Diversity Case Study and Interview with a Buckeye, both of which foster connections with OSU alumni and potential employers.

Credits: 2

Days: Tuesdays, Thursdays

Time: 3 – 3:55 pm

Location: 206 Denney Hall

Grading: Graded

Enrollment Cap: 25

This course provides students with the flexibility to refine their individual career goals while gaining a competitive edge in the job market. Structured like an independent study, it allows them to earn a micro-credential tailored to their interests—an asset highly valued by today’s recruiters. Upperclass students are encouraged to take advantage of this opportunity to enhance their career readiness and stand out to potential employers.
